Mrs. Elizabeth Cushing, aged 72 years, the last descendant of Jesro Sanborn, one of the boy heroes of the battle of Bennington, is dead at the Boston state hospital. Her identity was revealed by papers found in her possession. No rec ord of living relatives can be found. Mrs. Cushing was born in Nashua, N. H., of pre-Revolutionary stock. For many years she and her family were in good circumstances, but she came upon days of poverty, and conducted a little candy and toy store in East Boston, to eke out a living. She formerly lived in the rear of the shop where she was found suffering from insanity.

Governor Fletcher has authorized State Commissioner of Agriculture E. S. Brigham of St. Albans to expend $100 in the purchase of mounted exhibits of browntail moths to be placed in public libraries in an educational campaign. Browntail moths are prevalent in New Hampshire and the commissioner is taking every caution to keep them out of Vermont. Mr. Brigham will shortly issue a bulletin in pamphlet form on markets. It will be circulated to the extent of 23,000 copies and will contain valuable hints to farmers on marketing produce with a of market averages which will tell what farm and garden products brought during the last 10 years. A series of farmers' institutes are being arranged by the commissioner to begin early in Jannary, following the dairymen's meeting in Rutland.

ALLEGED FRAUD AND DECEIT.

Basis for a Land Suit Being Tried in Orange County Court.

Chelsea, Dec. 15,-On the assembling of the second week of county court, the case of Thomas R. Crane vs. Harris M. Miller and Fred M. Manley was taken up and occupied the attention of the court Wednesday night, when the rendered a verdiet for the plaintiff to recover from the defendants the sum of 26, the proceeds of which will go for the stories of American pioneers and south-$415. This was a case of alleged breach of the covenant, the defendants having signed a lease of certain premises located in the city of Schenectady, N. Y., as sureties for the payment of the rent, the essees being one Charles H. Taft of Schenectady and L. M. Miller of West Fairlee, a son of H. M. Miller, the designed the lease with the understanding that before it should become operative, that some person of financial standing Schenectady should sign the same, but their request was not carried out and the rent was not paid and the suit was brought last February to recover the amount of rent then due, about $1,-000. Pingree & Pingree of White River Junction and R. M. Harvey of Montpelier were attorneys for the plaintiff and S. Wilson of Chelsea and D. S. Conant of Bradford were attorneys for the de-

On Thursday morning the case of Edna E. Shipley vs. Jerry Menard was taken up, which action was one of alleged fraud and deceit, growing out of the purchase of a farm in Northfield by local agent. This case occupied the attention of the court during the remainder of the week and the evidence closed as court took its week-end recess. March M. Wilson of Randolph, W. C. White of Northfield and R. M. Harvey of Montpeller were the attorneys for the plaintiff and John W. Gordon of Barre and Benjamin Gates of Montpelier were the attorneys for the defendant.

Several respondents were brought in to plead during the week and all pleaded not guilty except one. Chelsea A. Kezer of Washington entered a plea of guilty to the crime of selling intoxicating liq-uor contrary to law and he was remanded to the custody of the failor, sentence being deferred. John F. Donohue of White River Junction, who entered a plea of guilty at the December term of Orange county court, in 1911, to the crime of assault with intent to rob, was sentenced to serve a term of not less than two years nor more than three years in the house of correction at Rutland, which sentence was suspended and the respondent placed on probation, was
